on Home Green in Western Tournament.

LOUIS N. JAMES DEFEATED
National Champion Louis on Sixteenth Green to E. W. Brown, of the Euclid Club.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Thursday.—E. Chandler Egan, the title holder; Walter Egan, his cousin; R. H. Russell, of Detroit, and Edward Brown, of the home links, qualified today for the semi-final round of the Western amateur golf championship.

In the morning Chandler Egan beat A. J. T. Brown, 1 up, in a match play. In the afternoon he was pitted against E. M. Myers, and as the winner of this match was regarded as the eventual champion, a big crowd followed the pair. Spectators were not disappointed as to the quality of golf, for both men gave an exhibition worthy of their reputations.

Going out in 37 each, the twain turned for home all square, and they halved the next three holes in pot figures. Chandler Egan, however, thanks to a long put, won the thirteenth, but his lead was short, for in the 14th he lost the match. Egan was one up, but he lost the match. He topped his tee shot into the bunker, but a grand recovery landed him in the green. In the meantime Myers' second was too strong, and the best he could do was to halve the hole and lose the match. The surprise of the day's play was the defeat of Louis James in the afternoon at the hands of E. W. Brown, who won his home course beat the national champion by 3 up on the sixteenth green. The summer championship.
